

Löppösen luolan kalliomaalaukset, 2012

Dstretch-käsittely

Erkki Luoma-aho

A photograph showing two people from behind, looking at a large rock wall. The person in the foreground is wearing a dark green jacket and blue jeans, with a black bag slung over their shoulder. The person behind them has white hair and is wearing a dark jacket. The rock wall is reddish-brown and has a large crack running across it. To the right, there is a stone structure and a long wooden pole leaning against it. In the foreground, a wooden sign is mounted on a post. The sign is made of two pieces of wood, with the top piece being a horizontal board and the bottom piece being a vertical post. The text on the sign is in white, uppercase letters. There are some green plants and branches in the foreground and on the left side of the image.

LOPPISEN LUOLA

165, 65

H H

